

A Look Back at Stirling

Dane Love

Publication Date: September 2020
Category: History

Format: Paperback
Extent 80pp

ISBN: 978 1 911043 11 9
RRP: £9.00

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Stirling is one of Scotland's most historic cities, but one where many of the older properties have been demolished and replaced. This little book takes a fond look back at the royal burgh, with many of the images showing places that are gone. Each photograph is accompanied by a detailed description of the places depicted plus other general history. Not everything in the town has been lost, fortunately, and Stirlingers will recognise much of interest within, kindling various memories of the old town. I'm sure that you'll enjoy this look back at Stirling, and perhaps finding out something about the town that you weren't aware of.

Illustrated with full-page black and white photographs with detailed captions.

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

- ◆ Detailed captions detailing the history of the town
- ◆ Some pictures haven't appeared in print before
- ◆ Part of the popular 'A Look Back at ...' series

ALSO BY DANE LOVE

Scotland's Lost Villages
ISBN 978 1 911043 05 8, £18.00

Ayrshire's Lost Villages
ISBN 978 1 911043 02 7 £15.00

The Galloway Highlands
ISBN 978 0 9567550 7 0, £15.00

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dane Love lives in the Ayrshire countryside with his wife and family. He has written over thirty books on all aspects of Scottish history, including many local Ayrshire titles. His best-selling books include Scottish Covenanter Stories, Scotland's Lost Villages and Jacobite Stories. Local titles include Ayrshire's Lost Villages, and Legendary Ayrshire.

AUTHOR LOCATION

Auchinleck, Ayrshire.

Distribution:
orders@booksource.net
www.booksource.net
0141 642 9192
Or order direct from the publisher

Carn Publishing Ltd.
Lochnoran House, Auchinleck, Ayrshire, KA18 3JW
info@carnpublishing.com
www.carnpublishing.com